Dear Sirs:

Pursuant to Wisconsin State Statutes 66.0119, I hereby give formal written notice that permission to enter, inspect, or otherwise search any of my properties (real or personal) is hereby denied and has always been denied.

This denial absolute and does not expire. The presumption is for denial of permission.

I further state on those limited and exceptional case where permission will be granted all such permission will be in writing, dated, signed, and will specify both the property to be entered, inspected, or searched and the time for which such permission is granted.

In Liberty,
John Washburn
